THE FOLLOWING PREMIUMS ARE OFFERED: remain at large on bail pending fur-ther proceedings; and so the lackless ad-mirer of Fenian poetry is consigned to a prison. * A girl who sees some people Streated makes use of a vulgar term of con-terms in connection with the second of the CLASS 3-Entrance Fee $2. Best stallion colt I year old and under 2 years ... olt I year old and under 2 (Entrume CLASS 3—Entrance Fee $3, ion colt 2 year old and unjer 3 yrs. olt lyre old and under I (Entr CLASS 4-Entrance Fee $4. Best 3 year old stal lon coll.....

Second best (proofd (Entrance Fee Sd). JASS 5-Eptrance Fee $20 Act son, style, blood and speed to be o CLASS 6-Entrance Fee $4. dest family horse or mare, 5 years old and o

CLASS T-Entrance Fee St. CLASS 8-Entrance Fee $5. CLASS 9-Entrance For $5 and best do. CLASS 10-Entrance Fee $5

CLASS II-Entrance Fee $10. CLASS 12-Entrance Fee S

Seet running horse or mare, single dash, hal-CLASS UL-Entrance Fee $5.

si gentleman's driving horse in harness, Best thorough brad stallion (pedigree to b

CLASS 16-Entrance Fee $75. MCHENRY HOUSE PURSE

Two mile heads in harmone, best two in three... Too (Entries free for this purse.) Three or more on-quired, and two to start. Horses entered may use the grounds for training purposes free.

Single admission treasts. December on horse with rider or driver, 30 cents: two horses and carriage, $1. For rules and reminitions see large posters.

WM. BEATTT, Act g Sec y.

No. 135 Water st, over Porter's Hardware Store octains.

PARKER, BOSE & CO., REAL ESTATE ACENTS,

CLEVELAND Electrical Manufacturing Co.

Fenn & Kramer, MANUFACTURERS OF Dr. Young's Electro-Thermal Bath,

AND ELECTRICAL APPARATUS OF EVERY DESCRIPTION.

WC Brass Finishing, Repairing and Jobbing don NO. 64 CENTRE STREET, Over Dennis Holt's Machine Sho CLEVELAND, OHTO.

ELECTRO-THERMAL

BATH CURE, 34 AND 36 PROSPECT STREET,

CLEVELAND, OHIO. MRS. J. YOUNGPROPRIETRES

BATHS ONE DOLLAR EACH. B. T. KRAMER, M. D., Physician,

Office Hours, D A. M. to 12 M. and 2 to 6 P. M. per Patients can be accommodated with Board

> COAL. ALLEN JONES, Strip Vein, Columbiana and Chippewa

COALS. Office on C. & P. B. B. Pier. Also, Office and Yard at Euclid street R. R. crossing. Coal of an Excellent Quality for STEAM, GAS, GRATES, STOVES, Office or Hopse Use. Also, ANTHRACITE COAL

DYEING. PREBERICK CYRIAX. ch and Fancy Steam Bye Works and Chilahment, Belvidere Farm, East Ch Establishmen, not and it for any in the first and it Senera street. Cleveland, O. Office—108 Senora street. Cleveland, O. The MEST, and shall spare no effort to give satisfied the MEST, and shall spare no effort to give satisfied to the mest.

I call the especial attention of Gentlem IMPROVED FRENCH STYLE

NOTICES.

Cleveland

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1865.

"Arbitrary Arrests" in Ireland

on the English distribes against our government for its "arbitrary arrests," inter-

"Two wretched ballad-singers are the late Thomas Davis, which we dare discovered a copy of 'Who is to Speak of '98?' and some grave nature of the charge against him, ne could not even allow the prisoner to empt in connection with the name of the Queen, and, though she expresses to-solemnly committed for trial, and sent to named Patrick Gilligan by the magistrate at the Chapel street police office, Dublin.

count-book with the address of the priso

A Female Barber in Maine.

New York World furnishes the following

Finding necessity for some tonsorial operations upon my arrival here vesterday morning, I very naturally inqired if there was a barber convenient. I was asked a flight of stairs into a pleasantly ar-nged room, with the usual array or raors, cream, pemades, very tastily display-d. I waited my "turn," while a very arge Yankee submitted the "rough mead-and motioned to the chair, where I sub-moments of dalliance tonsorial, she draws the "shinningblade" (that was never "given to grease") from its velvet case and polishes it twice or thrice across her soft and yielding palm!

And then, ah, how gently with her left arm she supports your neck, while her right guides the polished razor smoothly down your check once or twice and then deposits the debris of lather and beard up-

m the fragment of paper on your shoulder

A Waif from the Green Room.

George Henry Lewes in his "Retrospects

f Actors," recently published in the Pall

Mall Gazette, tells the following interest-

"In the great scene of the third act of The Mcrehant of Venice Shylock has to come on in a state of intense rage and rief at the flight of his daughter. Now it sobviously a great trial for the actor to strike twelve at once. He is one moment calm in the green-room, and in the next he has to appear on the stage with his whole nature in an uproar. Unless he has a very mobile temperament, quick as flame, he cannot begin this scene at the proper state of white-heat. Accordingly, we see actors in general, come bawling and gesticulating, but leaving us unmoved because t is said, used to spend some minutes be-nind the scenes lashing himself into a sym-mathetic rage by cursing softo over, and sking violently a ladder fixed against ing story of Macready; .

neident of a recent trip to that place:

ard so much:

MORNING EDITION.

DAILY LEADER Oil News. SATURDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1865.

Two Hundred and Fifty Barrel Well and Hiner Farm.

crence with the freedom of the press and of speech, &c., &c., of which we have OIL CITY, October 6 Another well was struck on the Hine Farm, Pithole Creek, on Thursday, which is now flowing at the rate of two hundred and fifty (250) barrels a day.

> Creek, to-day. Oil in Pithole is $6 par barrel, on the > > OIL ITEMS.

The Stevenson farm well, between Ber now territory will be pushed forward vig

The women employed in the fancy shop of Paris have addressed a request to their masters, to be relieved of the necessity of A literary treasure has been found at Modena in the shape of an account book. kept by Ariosto, in double entry, begin-ning with the 15th of May, 1528. B is bound in parchment and contains nineteen leaves, each of which bears the ducal stamp of the house of Este.

Messrs Maskelyne & Cook, by their hood. Mark how the treason was com-"spiritual" performances in Europe, have carned the title of the "Davenport Rivals."

Many portions of their entertainments are of a lively character at the control of the mitted! In the open street, just before noon, according to O'Brien's story, Galligan, with a person who "had a large moustache like an American,") an artistic of a lively character, particularly the transformation scene, which tries the risibility touch that about the American) came up, asked him to become a member of the of the audience by its comicality; the per-formers, after a short incarceration, bound Fenian Brotherhood, promised him "a good spree if you will come with us," and, hand and foot, coming forth from the cab-inet, one a gorilla, the other as an "unpro-tected lady;" and then, after being again pulling out a book wanted to swear him in then and there. This, O'Brien admits, was in the open street and in the presence intersed each in a barrel, firmly tied by ropes, and placed in the cabinet, making their appearance in a short time, in propria of all the passers by. The book is produced, and turns out to be a common ac-

A couple of novelties at the Sydenburg Exhibition are thus described: "A key by the police ou the charge of being drunk and disorderly; that it was between seven and eight o'clock in the evening when he ing or contracting, it is not likely out of order. A chair ladder is a drunkard's cell, and treated it as a grave and serious charge? Yet this was what actually happened. The magistrate sent

The Bangor (Me.) correspondent of the CALKINS, GRIFFIN & CO.'S UNION BUSINESS INSTITUTE, whether I would prefer being shaved by any other Commercial College in the country a gentleman or a lady. (They employ this Telegraph Department is under the supervi abling them to obtain situations for their gradu able novelty of the ides, I replied the latter, and was forthwith directed to the shop of Miss F. L. Smith, on Main street. I passed the patriotically striped pole, and Shell gysters and Clauss—Just recent Russell's New York Lunch, correct of Mich.

onsorial performances of the very modest white silk lining and tassels, and white handle. If toand pretty barberess. (I herewith make left at the office of the Cleveland Herald the finder the tribution to the list of feminine will receive the thanks of the owner and a satisfacouns lately becoming so popular.)

My predecessors being shaved. I was leasuntly asked if I would have a shave? Haight, have just opened a splendid assortment of Gent's Furnishing Goods for the fall and winter trade, at No. 141 Superior street, under the Wed-trade, at No. 141 Superior street, under the Wedexcept that I opened my mouth several imes during the operation. Remarking to my tonsorial feminine, that she had an excellent opportunity for cutting her acquaintances, she tendered me the pleasing assurance: "Ok, I won't cuttye." Reader.

House, and will open on Saturday, Oct 7th, with nasculine, were you ever shaved by a bar-bar, feminine? With what soft and delicate touches she manipulates your hirsute cheek and chin, and polishes it with creamy lather! How defily, after these

Saturday P. M. PROGRAMME OF ENTRIES FOR SECOND CLASS PACES monera.

Slow race for $25.00, the slowest hor

he race. All horses to change riders or drigers. Also, a mule race for $10,00, entrance added

Newberry Coal .- This favorite coal, after a and stoves-burns maigurar and chempular-pro duces INVENSE beat-is much harder than Chips needs no commendation except a trial.

Cleveland & Pittsburg Pier. E. M. HAMMOND, Foot of Vinyard-st., on Canal. who want a good Tonic, we would, use Buhrer's Gentian Bitters. They are pronounced by Physi-Try them. To be had at all the Drug Stores.

ice varieties of winter apples for sale.

For Sale.-The store on south side of the Pubthe office of Noble & Noble, 150 Superior street. January Gold Coupons and U. S. 6 per cent. Com-pound Interest Notes of 1864, bought at highest

LATEST NEWS BY TELECRAPH.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

Dispatch from Governor Holden, The Raleigh Reconstruction Convention.

The Ordinance of Secession Declared Null and Void. THE EPISCOPAL CONVENTION

THE WIRZ TRIAL

From Kentucky.

Associated Press Report.

L'pom New YUIK.

New York, Oct. 6.—Gold excited. Th after which the Sub-Treasury threw ball illion upon the market, under which good demand, rate on call generally 6 per cent with exception of 7 per, cent discounts action rates are higher for all except firs class bills. Extremes are 7 (a) 12 per cent New York, Oct. 6.—National Baker Express Co. completed its organization last night, by the election of E. B. Judson,

Prest, and Alfred Weltenson, Secy., both claims of the State of New York for money advanced in 1861, for the equiptucky delegation to urge the removal of

A brief session of the Cabinet was held General Grant and his staff arrived her this morning. It is said the General is much annoyed at the publication of exressions erroneously attributed to him.

The ex-rebel General Imbeden is here. His pardon is believed to be doubtful.

The office of Provest Marshal in Washngton was abolished to-day

Order. ant of the Navy Yard, in accordance with orders frem the Navy Department, has issued an order prohibiting the collection of funds from workmen for political pur-poses; also against the employment of additional men about the yard for party

The Herald's Washington special says The World is jubilant over what it calls the great Democratic victory in Connecticut The World has a right to shout. We surrender Connecticut to the Democracy, and hope they will have a good time managing it.

It has been decided, lately, that a boy found on a man's door-step may not necestable for the found on a man's door-step may not necestable for the found on a man's door-step may not necestable for the found on a man's door-step may not necestable for the found on a man's door-step may not necestable for the found on a man's door-step may not necestable for the found in the trial he had written address and recorded. The volunteer naval force is undergoing a great reduction. Discharged sailors are coming for their prize money, and the prospects are that the Auditor and his clerks will be very busily ngaged for months to come.

General News.

Sale of Beef Cattle. Baltimore, October 6.—The Govern-nent sold, to-day, 1250 head of beef cattle, at an average of 7 cents per pound.

General Grant. WASHINGTON, October 6.-Ge Grant and the members of his personal staff arrived here this morning, from an extended trip through the western north-western states.

North Carolina Convention. RALEIGH, October 6.—The Convention o-day, passed an ordinance declaring that ance of May 20, 1861, is and ways has been null and void. The vote to strike out all after the enacting cla and insert the substitute, was 194 to The final vote on the passage of the ordin ance was unanimous. Alabama Railroads. MOBILE, October 5.—The railways at now open between this city and Mont-gomery, in this State, completing the con-nection with New York via Knoville, Tenn., and Lynchburg, Va. Adams' Ex-press has opened its offices at these points.

From San Francisco. SAN FRANCISCO, October 4.
Dates from Kanajaini, Japan, to August 16, have been received. The receipts from the interior had been liberal, but the extreme prices demanded almost precluded purchases. Silks had also advanced so much as to check business. Stocks were accumulating. There was an active demand for silks and eggs for exportation to Europe. Exchange on London and China was lower. There was nothing new in

The birth of Napoleon I. was celebrated during the week preceding August 21, at Hakadodi. All the residents of foreign birth participated, apparently with equa interest. The fete wound up with races and a regatta, and is noticeable as showing the great cordiality in that mixed commuer Constitution sailed to-day for Panama, with $1,112,000 treasure for New York and $342,000 for England.

The small town of Eureka on Humbeldt Bay was violently shaken by an earthquake on Sunday last. Nearly every contion to the chiteness was too down as a real of the control of the contro sourcat—and yet—is sold at a less paice. It chimney was torn down, or cracked. Good res were thrown from the shelves and much crockery was broken. The damage is estimated at several thousand > rict, (21st) instead of Hon. Ezsa Jewell as reported in N. Y. papers.

>
> New Obleans, Oct. 4.—New Orleans & Jackson R. R. is completed through to Canton, Miss., trains will soon commence

The Wirz Trial. WASHINGTON, October 6.

The trial of Wirz was resumed this Augustus Klich of the 8th Pennsylvania cavalry testified that he was taken ns a prisoner to Andersonville. Captain Wirz was sick in August and continued so for a month. In the meanwhile Lieutenant Davis was in command. He never this was being done the prisoners had unlost, and the committee discharged from the restricted intercourse with everybody. About this time Wirz ordered the sutlers Rev. Dr. Cummins then rose and offer to leave the stockade in consequence of their extertion, and told the men to help themselves to his goods, but reserving the vegetables for the sick. Wirz told him und trading places. Salt was smuggled naide of the stockade by bakers throwing tover the walls at night in bags for the act that the prisoners could not get enough.

Mr. Farnell, of Pennsylvania, moved to satters. He called Wirz's attention to the fact that the prisoners could not get enough salt. He immediately prohibited the salt inside, and confiscated the supply on hand. After this there was a perceptible taste of salt in the bread.

Cross-cramined by Col. Chipman—There were plenty of wells in the stockake but those who acquired them by purchase or dug them, kept them for their own use. They would sell a cup full of water for a chew of tobacco, a piece of tobacco two inches square and very thin, would be sold for 25 cents. The water in the creek was never fit to driak, not being a trader he

Dr. Howe also urged the passage of the

The question of provincial organi of the Diocese was then called up. Mr. Ruggles, of New York, moved t Conventions, but afterwards consider that by referring the matter to a speci ittee, the brethren of Ten Texas, and the seceded States would act in harmony with the delegates of the North-A.—I never knew its character until ern States. He gladly withdrew the moscently. I did not know when I wrote

Dr. Vinton of New York, suggested the matter be referred to a committee of one Rev. Dr. Wharton declined to accepte amendment, as he believed a commi tee of nine would be as fully competent to Judge Otis said he had moved for a co ittee of nineteen with the view of reorganizing the diocese of the whole country rending of the resolution, which had been offered yesterday. The resolution was accordingly read.

Dr. Mason then concluded his remarks. He said the committee could only con-sider the subject and make a report to the Convention. No definite action could be taken by them and a small committee ould act as effectually as a large one. The committee consists of thirteen ger Dr. Wharton also accepted the amend-

Mr. Wm. Welch would like to see the hurch throughout our whole land work-Eagle was more disloyal to the Covern-ment than the Daily News. Anticipating adopted. he report of the Committee be made at the next Convention, and not at this one.

> Special Dispatches. RECEIVED UP TO S O'CLOCK, A. M.

Special Dispatches to Western Associated Press DEPOSITED. NEW YORK, October 6,-Gov. Fentor his morning deposited with the Manhatta Company, to the credit of the State, $262,763,17, received from the National Government, on account of the claims of New York for money, &c., advanced in 1861 for the eqipment of regiments, &c.,

The trot yesterday, for $1,500, mile teats, bust three in five, was won by Lady Thome. The other horses were Goorge Wilkes and Lady Emma.

The Herald has the full message of Gov. Holden of N. C. to the state convention he says North Carolina attempted in 1861 to seperate herself from federal union, this attempt involved her with other slavehold ing states in protracted and disastrous war. The result of which was the vast expenditure of blood and treasure on her part and practical abolition of domestic slavery She entered into rebellion a slaveholding state and emerged a non-slaveholding state Wirz at will. Witness also visited Andersonville in the following February, and stayed a week each time. His mission are concerned she has undergone no roper was to preach to the Florida ar- change. The President of the United Cross-examined by Col. Chipman—When his State (Tenn.) went out of the United States wisely determined that her existence as a state should not be extinguished, but under that clause of federal Constitution which guaranees to every what with his country. He was a man of one work, preaching to souls everywhere. He never thought religion should be mixed assembled, might so alter and amend their sufficient answer.

The Court offerruled the objection raised by Mr. Baker.

Colonel Chipman—Did you ever take an eath of loyalty to the Confederate Government?

Witness—I did not. I never was conwill enjoy, in common with other States, the protection of just laws under the constitution of our fathers. I amb it is affidavit that there is no pre-emption settlement upon the same, and makes his entry substitution of our fathers. I amb it is affidavit that there is no pre-emption settlement upon the same, and makes his entry substitution of our fathers. Several other witnesses were examined, and the Court adjourned.

The Episcopal Convention.

Philadelphia, October 6.—The Conception, and that you will submit the constitution, and that you will submit the constitution, when altered and amended, and the constitution, when altered and amended, and the constitution, when altered and amended, and the constitution of the State at the hallet-box for ratification or rejection. I do not

ARRIVED. Senator Chandler, of Michigan, has arenclosing an address from rived in Washington. RETURED. Major General Blair returned from St

The receipts from the internal revenue Thursday were $1,465,117.

REVENUE BECEIPTS.

VOL. XIX--NO. 239. CABINET SESSION. The only members present at the session of the Cabinet to-day were Postmaster General Dennison and Secretaries Stanton and Welles, the other members being ab-

The Wirz trial was commenced on the Seth of August. The prosecution has examined one hundred and twenty-five wit-luded ao. In that convbriation General nesses, the number of days required for Grant in no way intimated to him that it which was twenty-three, the record making 2,868 foolscap pages. The defense which was twenty-three, the record making 2,868 footscap pages. The defense was opened on the 26th ult. the number of witnesses subpensed was 106, and the number examined thus far seventeen, and fifty-five have reported themselves.

MEXICAN NEWS.

WEXICAN NEWS.

News was received to-day from Chihu hua that the Mexican General Setiga ngmen, and their masters patrons. GEN. HUMPHREYS.

RELEASED. Walter Lennox, formerly Mayor Washington, has, after confinement of Fort McHenry. He left this city at the high as 25,000. We ascertain on official ion of being a rebel emissary. A CORRECTION. apers is made to read as follows: It is tated that Mr. Russell, postmaster at Day uport, Canada West, has been removed and that George N. Sanders has be cointed in his place. The dispatch should end: Mr. Russell, postmaster at Daven-cort, Iowa, has been removed, and General

To the President of the United States: Sir-The Convention has just pass the 21st day of November, 1789, which ig and adopting amendment to said Conthe adoption and ratification thereof, have the adoption and rathication thereof, have been in full force and effect, notwith-standing the supposed ordinance of the 20th of May, 1881, declaring the same to be repealed, rescinded and abrogated, the said supposed ordinance is now and at all times has been null and void."

layery question to-morrow The State election will be fixed for the Very respectfully, W. W. HOLDEN, NASHVILLE, October 6.—The Planters values with 4,000 cales of cotton Loss $800,000, mostly covered by insurance.

McGuerrineths warehouse burned this corning and 1,800 bales of cotton destroy-

COUNTERFEITERS ARRESTED. Phovenesses, October 6.—The detectives have arrested four men in this city for having and passing counterfeit United States currency, and a large quantity was recovered, in $100, $20, $1 notes, and 50 cent serip. One of the men is a wholesale distributor of counterfeit money for New England, named Wood alias Buchanan. The others are Wm. H. Pearce, clerk at the Adams House; Solomon Gage, livery stable keeper, and Patrick McCalley, State and as rumor has it, in behalf of General RELEASED.

WASHINGTON, October 6.—It is said the General Land Office has answered tailly made his settlement prior to the date of the homestead claimant.

Second—Car two contents and according to the settlement prior to the date of the homestead claimant. Second-Can two or more parties ante

Answer-He can if he files his affidavi ject to the pre-emption clause, in case such clause should be established after notice

NEW YORK, October 6 .- The Tribune Washington special says: The proceed-ngs of the Military Commission at Cinwas recently tried on the charges of con-spiring, in violation of the laws of war to cleast the rebel prisoners confine at Camp Douglass, near Chicago, and con-spiring to lay waste the city of Chicago, was promulgated by the War Department and the success of the government in supin the opera.

The Keans have been playing at the Bostom the England and interviews which have lately occur and interviews which have lately occur and interviews which have lately occur and the succession of the prayer for the President on the street on Sunday evening last. A grand sacred concert was given at that the street on Sunday evening, in which Mr. The prohibition shall continue in such individual case until special application is made through the military channels to these headquarters for permission to preach and interviews which have lately been passing between the Emperor Louis Napoleon and King Victor Emmanuel, which are supposed to account for rummers of the recognition of the Kingdom of Haily by Austria.

The settlement of the Roman difficulty and the shearing of the Pope of his temporal power.

Maretzek opened his fall campaign of these headquarters for permission to preach and perform divine service, and until such application is approved at these or superisor headquarters.

We learn on good autority that a new poral power.

CLEVELAND LEADER COMPANY. OFFICE: NO. 142 SUPERIOR STREET

TERMS OF THE WEEKLY To the getter up of a Club of ten, we will send copy of the Waratz Leange, grains; of twenty, copy of the Tri-Weekly; of thirty and upward, lopy of the Daily.

Address

CLEVELAND LEADER COMPANY. The Slavery Question is the Epis pal Convention. A dispatch to the Cincinnati Gaz

ives the following in relation to the de bate on the slavery question in the Epis copal House of Delegates, on Thursday; Rev. Mr. Meude, of Connecticut, who Rev. Mr. Heade, of Connecticut, whose conservatism is of the Seymour kind, introduced a resolution rejoicing at the return of peace, and recommending the appointment of a day of church thanksgiving, but conching the whole in the remotest generalities.

eralities.

Immediately Rev. Dr. Howe, Rector of St. Luke's, Philadelphia, offered a substitute in a series of resolutions, chiefly distinguished from the others by the directness of the fourth resolution, which was as in the control of the fourth resolution, which was as Resolved, That as patriots and Chris rence to slavery, as the only known cause of estrangement of the ren now removed.

This brought the Illinois Knight of the Golden Circle, L. C. Judd, to his feet as promptly as an echo, to move to lay Day Howe's resolutions on the table.

Dr. Howe was himself laid on the table at the Consented of 1862 in New York, for his radicalism, when his was replaced in the Presidency of the Convention by the Kentucky policy now reaffirmed in the General Fisk states that during the past week six hundred or seven hundred na-groes have been sent to their former untracted with the former owners to work for wages. Within a month there will be a governer causing out or negrous here arrangements having been effected to procure them labor at different parts of the

The sensation at the introduction NEW YORK, October, 6 .- The Times mber of pardons thus far granted by the resident. Some estimates placing it as authority that the number up to the war-rants signed to-day is but 2,558. Among those lately pardoned is L. Pope Walls, the first rebel Secretary of War, the first nose coming under the 15th exception nown as the 20,00 class.

communication signed by prominent Sena-tore and Representatives in Congress from DISPATCH TO THE PRESIDENT.

The following dispatch was received a evening from Governor Holden:

RALKIGH, October 6.

The President of the United States:

The Convention has just passed following unanimous vote:

The ordinance of the Convention of State of North Carolina, ratifled on 21st day of November, 1789, which The author of "Guy Livingston" is fifty-seven regiments. Most of these regi-ments need recruiting. They also ask that the World." Mr. Raiph Waldo Emerson permission be granted to the Veteran Reserves to recruit their regiments up to the be writing a series of essays for the Atlan-lic Monthly, while Professor Holmes and Mrs. Stowe are engaged in the same gen-ial occupation. We presume the third most of them have received, during the late war, suco bodily injuries as unfit them of the new volume. Mr. Bayard Taylor has lately finished a poem of considerable length, upon which he has been for some time engaged, and Italy and thereab that the telepher Lanman is obliged to devote to his "Dictionary of Con The bonds have been executed and ap ated receivers and disbursing agents Route, Chillicothe, Ohio; Joseph Cush-man, Olympia, Washington Torritory; William Miller, Montgomery, Alabama; Baxter C. Bloomer, Council Bluffs, Iowa; of the Southern series of his "Adventures in the Wilds of America," which was so warmly recommended by the late Washgton Irving, and also a volume of mis-Almanam Stone, Stevenson, Wis.; Wm ellaneous essays entitled "Hap-Hazard a language which is not that in which he orblication, and who now, in middle age the General Land Office has answered the insufficient to sustain the population. The greater part of the iohnbitants are indisposed to co-operate with the Freedmen's Bureau officers and refuse to consider the yised to be omitted to not a present to the population.

He never thought religion should be mixed up with polities.

Colonel Chipman here asked a question affecting the loyalty of witness.

The reverend gentleman asked: Is that a proper quection?

Colonel Chipman here asked a question affecting the loyalty of witness.

The reverend gentleman asked: Is that a proper quection?

Colonel Chipman here asked a question affecting the loyalty of witness.

The reverend gentleman asked: Is that a proper quection?

The reverend gentleman asked: Is that a proper quection?

Tolonel Chipman here asked a question affecting the loyalty of witness.

The reverend gentleman asked: Is that a proper quection?

Tolonel Chipman here asked a question affecting the loyalty of witness.

The reverend gentleman asked: Is that a proper quection?

The reverend gentleman asked: Is that a proper quection?

The reverend gentleman asked: Is that a proper quection?

The reverend gentleman asked: Is that a proper quection?

The reverend gentleman asked: Is that a proper quection?

The reverend gentleman asked: Is that a proper quection?

The reverend gentleman asked: Is that a proper quection?

The reverend gentleman asked: Is that the policy of she proper quection?

The reverend gentleman asked: Is that a proper quection?

The reverend gentleman asked: Is that a proper quection?

The reverend gentleman asked: Is that the policy of she proper quection?

The reverend gentleman asked: Is that the policy of limit was, and informed witness he was at liberty to refuse and blessings of union.

It is my firm belief that the policy of she President in this respect, which is a proper give the same tract of land under the Homestond Law?

The Light House Board is constantly directing the re-establishment, along the solicity of light houses destroyed by the rebels during the late war. Large proper find the same time, it should be awarded to one applicable the high because the same tract of land under the Homestond Law?

The Light House Board is constantly directing the re-establishment, along the feet all Law?

T

rayer, and its omission by the clergy, is of only a violation of the canons of the Church, but shows a factious and disloyal spirit, and is a marked insult to every loy-al citizen within the department. Such ver public epinion.

It is therefore ordered, pursuant to the directions of Major General Thomas, com-manding the Military Division of the Ten-nessee, that said Richard Wilmer, Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Alabama, and the Protestant Episcopal Church of the on the 16th inst. He goes to play an engagement with Maguire.

The manager of the Chestnut Street Theatra announces that Josephine Orton receives the largest salary ever paid to any stock actor in Philadelphis.

Campbell & Castle's opera troupe are worship be closed until such time as said Campbell & Castle's opera troupe are meeting with much success at the Academy of Music, Chicago. Miss Cooke has been quite ill, but is now able to take her place quite ill, but is now able to take her place loyal and patriotic spirit by offering to reloyal and patriotic spirit by offering to re-

York has never had a superior troupe, or

MEETING OF THE STOCKHOLD-Secretary, morning and evening. MORE STRIKES ON PITHOLE.

The London Star gives the following sume of the proceedings of the Irish auhorities in suppressing the Fenian movenent. It is a most excellent commentary

Two Hundred Barrel Well on Holmden Farm.

rought up for droning in the streets of lingstown a 'seditious song' called "The irren above the Red"—a well known poem A two hundred (200) barrel well was struck on the Holmden Farm, Pithol say has often been sung in a London draw-ing-room. The ballad-singers are remand-ed for a week—sent to prison for a week— in order that the police may make inquires into their character and objects, and hus assist the magistrate to decide on nehoff and Cherry Tree runs, is now flowing 260 barrels of oil per day. Tanks are being rapidly built, engines brought upon the grounds, and developments upon this what further course of proceedings to be adopted against them. * A man is seen tearning down one of the Government proclamations, and he is brought up on a charge of Fenianism. He is found to have in his pockets a book on Rifle and Infantry Tactics, and at his lodgings are discovered a copy of 'Who A new well on the Stevenson farm, Pe ribbled versus a shout the Fenian en, their green banners, and e blossoming heather. The magistrate fore whom this formidable relet is ought declares that, considering the troleum Centre, struck about four week ago, has increased from 250 to 400 hayale. This well is said to be over 350 feet above the level of the creek. The depth is 650 down on the Stevenson farm.

FORFIGN GOSSIP

erving in the shops on Sunday. The students of Switzerland, following the example of some of those in Germany, have passed resolutions against duelling. prison to abide the due course of justice.

But a yet more extraordinary proceeding was that which led to the committal of a man kept by Ariosto, in double entry,

This man was charged by one John O'Brien with having endeavored to enroll him as a member of the Fenian Brother-was released from the Bridewell on bail; being a square, almost blank piece of metal, that he then had a row of some sort with the prisoner, and then he finally made the same power is necessary either in expandsation against him about Fenianism the proferred envolument. Now, will A chair ladder is a capital it be believed that a Dublin magistrate— not a country justice, not a Squire Westinvention for the library. By the simplest a synopsis of the business of the Fourth movement it forms either a chair, ora ladern, but a magistrate in alcapital city— really received this cock-and-bull story der, or an arm-chair. The inventor is M. ber is as follows: 244 accounts were setold by a man just released from the good practical business education, much superior to any other Commercial College in the country. The and Ontario street, under the Auction Stores. ed. I waited my "turn," while a very large Yankee submitted the "rough mead-ows of his cheek, unmown," to the delicate Black Silk Parasol, purple embroidery with braid,

Gent's Furnishing Goods.—Mott 8

Great Fun on the Driving Park on

Wm. H. Potts enters Fly. L. E. Eastman enters Dot. M. Simmons enters Barney. bf.$50.00, the same to trot or pace the nearest to

The operation over, and your check left as smooth and soft as her own, how kindly Mules can be entered at the time of the race. Admittanes, 50 cents. oct7:250 WM. H. POTTS, Sup t. she applies the downy napkin, moistened with bay! then pomades your hair and adjusting it with comb and brush, a ta mode, removes the tonsorial garment, and interval of seven years, is again offered to the pub-lic. It is mined from the entries, and the coal is brushes the dust from your collar! And when you are finished and inquire "how much ?" replies in tones as silvery as the tic use and steam purposes it has no supraise, currency will admit, "ten cents, hir." hardly an equal. It is peculiarly adapted to grates

Lump, Sutt and Stack at wholesale. For sale

oct@g5g

vegetables for the siek. Wirz told him that another sergeant's camp was organized and provisious would be more abundant and regular. Wirz also increased the rations and supply of wood. Parties were also permitted to go outside of the stockade and bring in wood under a guard, and such as had not blankets were allowed to gather pine tops. He had never heard of Wirz shooting or maltreating any of the prisoners, but had heard him curse men. Witness confirmed the statement of Reynolds about stores and trading places. Salt was smuggled or 25 cents. The water in the creek was ever fit to drink, not being a trader he brethren of the South, we ought to do so the was surreised at the objection made by and yery extended opportunity for He was surprised at the objection made by About 20 out of 30 under charge of the which he considered entirely inoffensiv tness, died off in the stockade principal-of Diorrohea, 6 of the remainder were of Diorrohea, 6 of the remainder were o sick to travel. He saw men die for ann of proper food, it was not because their presence gladdened his heart.

Rev. Mr. Cummins, had trusted that there was a lack of a sufficient quantity of it. They could not eat corn when the resolution was offered that it bread because their mouths were too sore with the scurvy. Witness said he had written several letters to the New York Daily News, purporting to give a plain statement of the facts, to see that justice as done to his fellow men. He se hat paper because he was acquainted with he editor, who was a person friend of his. Q.—Do you not know that that paper as in sympathy with the rebellion?

A.-1.do not. Q.—Did you not know it was called a opperhead sheet, and justly so; and did on not know that it attacked the governent during the war? the letters what kind of a paper it was. I on Convention was asked by one of the editors to give the public any information on the subject I matter be refer Mr. Schade, the prisoner's counsel, here interfered, saying that he found that the New York Daily News was a loyal paper, apporting the policy of President Joh He therefore could not see why as called a disloyal sheet.

Colonel Chipman replied that he was ery well aware why Mr. Schade did not Messrs, Schade and Baker objected to ie way in which the examination of their itness was conducted.

Colonel Chipman defended his course. The Court did not sustain the objection

Cross-examination of witness resumed-Witness said that he saw Benjamin Dods, proprietor of the Dally News, twice in his office. He went to him to make a correction. He published two letters in he about the affairs at Andersonville. He did know how he came to be subpened. The witness further said he vrote letters to the Brooklyn Eagle. In reply to questions asked by Col. Chipman the witions of the Judge Advocate on the round that the News and Eagle were on rial here, and as he understood they we both toyal and sustained the policy The court overruled Mr. Schade's object Frederick Rath then testified as to the affairs at Andersonville, Mississippi.

Mary Rawson testified that she lived near Andersonville, and frequently carried food to one of the Union prisoners. ried food to one of the Union prisoners.
Captain Wirz had never refused or denied her any privilege that she had asked of him. He was always agreeable and willing she should bring anything to the prison. She never heard of Captain Wirz treating any lady in an unkind way.

The name of her prisoner, as she called him, was Peter Keerof, 16th Iowa regi-The Rey, Mr. Duncan testified that in August, 1864, he preached to the Union prisoners. He obtained a pass from Capt.

He never thought religion should be mixed

Witness-I did not. I never was connected with the army in any way.

PHILADELPHIA, October 6.—The Convention reassembled at 10 o'clock this to the people of the State at the ballot-box morning.

Dr. Highee, of New York, stated that the doubt that the constitution, thus altered and amended, will be ratified by an immense unigority of the diocese, they were unable to present their certificates, he therefore moved that the names of the Tennessee deputies be also do not doubt that the constitution, thus altered and amended, will be ratified by an immense majority of the people.

PARDONED:

Mathew Galloway, postmaster at Memphis when the war broke out, and editor The Committee on Canons appointed terview with the President, and has reyesterday, reported in involved the adoption of a new camon prohibiting clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church from entering the military or naval service of the United States, except in the capacity of chaplains, or to enter any naval or military school, except as chaplains val or military school, except as chaplains. professors of instruction. A message was received from the House of Bishops, enclosing an address from the Protestant Episcopal Church in Can-ada to the Convention of Clerical and Lay Delegates of the United States of America. Brother Bennin, of Canada, was presented to the convention, and made a few remarks. He is Procurator of the Canadian Synod, and author of the well-known agritated. He had worked himself up to the proper light of sericidement while was better received earlier above was in command. He never here the proper light of sericidement while was better received here will doubtless meet the split of sericidement while was better received at the Steper's terret, under Weekelf House.

"The Printers, We have for sale in quantities was the heater of the above mentioned address."

"To Printers, We have for sale in quantities was the heater of the above mentioned address."

"To Printers, We have for sale in quantities the will be easied the was perior troups, or a war Wirz she shoot or injure a man. Cross-section the worn the confidence of the above mentioned address.

"To Printers, We have for sale in quantities was the heater of the above was the heater of the above mentioned address."

"To Printers, We have for sale in quantities the will appear the shoot or injure a man. Cross-section the was not not to be commented address."

"To Printers, We have for sale in quantities was the heater of the above was the heater of the above mentioned address."

"To Printers, We have for sale in quantities was the heater of the above the control of the comment of the composition. The was a sequent of a discussion of the control of the composition of the comp sent from the city. WIRZ TRIAL hun that the Mexican General Setiga attacked and took possession, in August 20 they must prove themselves entitled to gust, of the city of Parol, defended by the French. He inflicted a great loss on the enemy. The republican General Meogni was killed in battle.

The French were coldly received in Chibuahua.

General Brincourt issued a proclamation, printed in the city of Mexico, stating that he had been welcomed by the people. Next day he declared martial journed.

copie. Next day he declared martial journed

General G. B. Humphreys, it is under-stood, was pardoned by the President to-day. This will render him eligible to the governorship of Mississippi, to which office he is probably elected.

outbreak of the rebellion, but was subsequently arrested in Baltimore, and in isomed as above, on the charge or sus-nders appointed instead. The following dispatch was receive this evening from Governor Holden:

pted and ratified the Constitution of the United States, and also all acts and parts full number. It is urged as one of the reasons for retaining these troops, that for ordinary business avocations, and as they promptly and patriotically volunteer-first Thursday of November.

prison graduate. Among the bogus bills many are 10s on the Thompson Bank, of BALTIMORS, October 6 .- Mr. Domitry one of the editors of the Richmond Bul-letin, has been released from arrest. A Washington special to the Herald in regard to the Freedmen's affairs states that Yesterday Evening's Edition.

Answer—He can if his statement Law?

Answer—He can if his statement Law? Answer-He can if his statement is ac- the oath of allegiance merely to be broken a memorandum of facts.

Third—Can a party enter under the Homestead Law, a tract, upon which a pre-emptor has filed his declaratory state-

Trial of Conspirator. damage is estimated at several thousand dollars.

Oswgoo, Oct. 6.—John J. Welcott of Fulton, has been nominated by the republicans for State Senator from Oswgoo disasters.

Mathew Galloway, postmaster at Membris Avaladch, has had an interview with the President, and has relicious for State Senator from Oswgoo disasters.

Mathew Galloway, postmaster at Membris Avaladch, has had an interview with the President, and has relicious for State Senator from Oswgoo disasters.

Mathew Galloway, postmaster at Membris Avaladch, has had an interview with the President, and has relicious for the Mempris Avaladch, has had an interview with the President, and has relicious for the Mempris Avaladch, has had an interview with the President, and has relicious for the Mempris Avaladch, has had an interview with the President, and has relicious for the Mempris Avaladch, has had an interview with the President, and has relicious for the Mempris Avaladch, has had an interview with the President, and has relicious for the Mempris Avaladch, has had an interview with the President, and has relicious for the Mempris Avaladch, has had an interview with the President, and has relicious for the Mempris Avaladch, has had an interview with the President, and has relicious for the Mempris Avaladch, has had an interview with the President, and has relicious for the Mempris Avaladch, has had an interview with the President, and has relicious for the Mempris Avaladch, has had an interview with the President, and has relicious for the Mempris Avaladch, has had an interview with the President, and has relicious for the Mempris Avaladch, has had an interview with the President, and has relicious for the Mempris Avaladch, has had an interview with the President, and has relicious for the Mempris Avaladch, has had an interview with the President at Mempris Avaladch, has had an interview with the President at Mempris Avaladch, has had an interview with the President at Mempris Avaladch, has had an interview with the President at Mempris Avaladch, has h

this city to-day, says, in reference to the reported conversation between General Grant and himself upon Mexican affair that Mr. Smith certainly misunderst him, if his version of the conversation correctly reported. Judge Caron says he never was on a train from Cincinnati with General Grant to his knowledge, but that

The Veteran Reserves.

United States Agents.

Application for Pardon.

Freedmen's Affairs.

mander of Murfreesboro.

DRAHATIC AND MUSICAL.

Geo. C. Boniface sailed for California

n the 16th inst. He goes to play an en-

The Secretary of War has before him a groes of Tennessee were free, as Government intended they should be, and that tians, it becomes us to acknowledge with grathfude that God has overruled this unhappy strife in such wise that the great oc casion of national dissention has been swept away, and that, under His Provi-The following resolution had also a ref-was the greatest went deprecatingly from pew to pew to put out the fire. Both resmatter is only postponed, for there are men here who will be heard on this point, and who believe that the church has a duty and a privilege in an anthem of dewho gave the order to open fire on Fort Sumter. It is proper to state that the Cabinet have declined to recommend the pardon of any of the excepted classes, those coming under the 15th exception known as the 20.00 class. dead as to thank the Deity that the moon was not made of green cheese.

vice only the Regular Army and the Veteran Reserves, which combined amount to hi elever series of sketches, "Streets of ed to put down the rebellion at its comement, they should be retained in the service, and especially as it is now known that a regular force will be required equal idyl of art-life, the scene being laid i to that of the Regular Army and the Veteran Reserves combined. Secretary will be published this fall by Messrs, Ticknor & Co.

Bost, Indianapolis, Ind.; John Kirkwood, Little Rock, Ark.; Heary Watren, Oregon City, Oregon. The last two named are designated as United States depositaries. Sala is out with the following card: There are some very cruel persons who have been going about the world accusing Among those in attendance at the White House to-day seeking pardon were Robert Ould, late rebel Commissioner of Exchange and the rebel General Peck. writing in adulterate jargon which is nei-ther French nor English, and is bad at both. I plead gnilty to the indictment. General Pillow obtained an interview with the President and thanked him for I have a cloven tongue; but the operation was unskillfully performed, and neither the Executive elemency. More Levert also had an interview with the President, is unable to dream in English." one of the Assistant Commissioners who has just completed a tour through western the Order Suspending Bishop Wil Alabama, reposts that the negroes are in the main industriously at work but the crops are poor and it is thought they will . The following is the closing portion of the ringing order suspending Bishop Wil> vised to be omitted, is not a prayer for the ticular form of government or any particular form of government or any particular persons in power—it is simply a prayer for the temporal and spiritual weal of the persons in whose behalf it is offered it is a prayer to the High and Mighty Ru-ler of the universe that He would with his power bless. His servant, the President of

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE, October 5.scientiously offer.

The advice of the Bishop to omit this Marshal General of the Department of ennessee has been mustered out of ser vice. His office will be filled by Brigadier General P. W. Johnson, formerly district ommander of Murfreesboro.

The trial of Colonel Jos. C. Crane by the men are unsafe public teachers, and not to ourt martial will be research to-morrow.

Irish Society is about to be organized in this city, having the same object in view as the Fenians. It is to be called, "The